Brown, 2017-10-21 Excerpt from Churches of Christ: A Historical, Biographical, and Pictorial History of the Churches of Christ in the the United States, Australasia, England and Canada During the ministry of John, the Messian was manifested to Israel, and acknowledged from on high as the Son of God in his baptism. It was not long now that John's ministry ended in his imprisonment and death, and Jesus, the greatest of all prophets, assumed the functions of the prophetic office, and repeated the message that John had proclaimed, saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. We are now in a time that is pregnant with intense interest and importance, for an event that concerns the world's greatest needs is about to take place. Six hundred years before this a young prophet stood in the presence of the mighty Nebuchadnezzar, and declared that God would set up a kingdom in the days of the Caesars; and now, in the midst of those days the Son of God gives assurance that this prophecy is very near its fulfillment, and urges the people of his generation to be in readiness to receive the new kingdom. This was a part of the burden of his preaching during the period of his brief earthly ministry. Toward the close of his life he elicited from Peter the Good Confession in this language: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. This confession called out the following significant declaration from the Messiah: Blessed art thou, Simon bar-jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven. And I say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 1500 brinker road wellsburg wv history: Rfd #3 Harry Addison, 1994-10-01 In RFD #3, Harry Wayne Addison, an eloquent spokesman of his rural north Louisiana heritage, addresses many of that tradition's values, their importance to his life, and their application to a broad range of human relationships. Perhaps north Louisiana's premier native-born humorist, Addison is renowned throughout the area as a gifted after-dinner speaker, annually making some seventy-five appearances throughout Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi. In this volume, Addison comments wittily, often wryly, and always perceptively about incidents, events, and character-building circumstances of his rural upbringing. The title of this book is derived from one such anecdote.

Nostalgic in tone and earthy in approach, RFD #3 focuses upon topics such as love, friendship, politics, religion, and family life through a series of vignettes gleaned from his country boyhood. His staunch belief that children should be raised by the book rather than by the belt inspired him to write his first volume, Write That Down for Me, Daddy. A native of Mansfield, Louisiana, Addison was reared in the small community of Swartz, near Monroe. A real-estate agent for the city of Monroe, Addison was past president of the West Monroe Kiwanis Club and past chairman of the library board of the West Monroe Chamber of Commerce.

1500 brinker road wellsburg wv history: EDGAR ALLAN POE Giuseppe Cafiero, 2019-09-06
Giuseppe Cafiero presents the most intriguing biography of one of America's most enduring writers: poet, author, and critic Edgar Allan Poe. The beloved master of mystery and the macabre, Poe's life and work are explored through the creation of memories, recriminations, intense loves and of delicate devotions. Using the form of literary nonfiction, Cafiero successfully structures this memoir in the style of a traditional fiction narrative. Introducing the reader to the character, The Reporter, whose story is a mirror in which it's possible to contemplate what is unreasonably hidden and infinitely ambiguous in the existence and in the writing of Edgar Allan Poe. After Poe's infamous death, the reporter attempts to investigate the life and writing of Poe by attending a meeting at the Old Swan Tavern in Richmond. Invited to the interview is archrival Reverend Rufus Wilmot Griswold and one of the last to see Poe before his death, Dr. J. Evans Snodgrass. The reporter not only discovers the accusations of life filled with alcoholism, opium addiction, violence and womanizing but also begins to understand that this painful dark existence is not the antithesis to great writing. This is confirmed when the investigation continues with the meeting of an array of people by the reporter who divulges more information on the life of Poe and why many became the protagonists in his stories. This surreal bio-fiction of the life of nineteenth-century American writer, father of detective fiction, Edgar Allan Poe, brings to life a solidly constructed psychological portrait of the writer through the characters in his works. Each of the stories is accompanied by the gloriously gothic illustrations by acclaimed Italian artist Sergio Poddighe. Perhaps this is the only way to pay tribute to a writer who has indelibly marked the nineteenth-century.
